Tax treatment for the Investors (Unit holders)

TAX BENEFITS OF INVESTING IN A MUTUAL FUND

Certain tax benefits are described below that are believed to be available, under present taxation laws, to the unit-holders of Mutual Funds including Sundaram Mutual Fund. The information set forth below is included for general information purposes only. In view of the individual nature of tax consequences, each investor is advised to consult his/her own tax advisor with respect to the specific tax consequences to him/her of participation in this Scheme.

THE FUND

The Income of the Fund registered under the Securities and Exchange Board of India Act, 1992 (15 of 1992) or regulations made there under will be exempt from income tax in accordance with the provisions of section 10(23D) of the Act. The income received by the Fund is not liable for deduction of tax at source.

The Finance (No. 2) Act 2004 has amended the provisions of section 115R of the Act, whereby additional tax is payable by the Mutual Fund at different rates on income distributed to different class of unit holders.

However, in respect of open-ended equity oriented fund, no additional income tax is payable on income distributed by the Mutual Fund.

Securities transaction tax

The Finance (No. 2) Act 2004 has introduced Securities Transaction Tax (STT), which is made applicable to transactions of purchase or sale of units of Equity Oriented Fund entered into on a recognized stock exchange or sale of units of Equity Oriented Fund to the Mutual Fund. The Securities Transaction Tax shall come into force from such date as may be notified in the Official Gazette by the Central Government. The applicable date is likely to be October 01, 2004.

Since the Fund is planned to be an Equity Oriented Fund, the transaction of sale of units by the investors to the Fund would be liable to Securities Transaction Tax. STT would be payable at the rate of 0.15% by the Seller from the date on which STT comes into force. The Fund would be responsible for collecting the STT from every person who sells the unit to it.

TO THE UNITHOLDERS

Income received from mutual fund

According to section 10(35) of the Act, any income received in respect of units of Mutual Fund specified under section 10(23D) will be exempt from income tax in the hands of the unit holders. Further, it has been clarified that income arising from transfer of units of Mutual Fund shall not be exempt under section 10(35).

Long term capital gains on transfer of units

The Finance (No. 2) Act 2004 has inserted Section 10(38), whereby Long Term Capital Gain on sale of units of Equity Oriented Funds will be exempt from Income Tax in the hands of unit holders after introduction of STT, provided such transactions are entered into a recognized stock exchange or such units are sold to the Mutual Fund. In view of the amendment, no tax would be payable by unit holders in respect of long term capital gains arising on sale of unit to the Fund on which STT has been paid.

Short term capital gains on transfer of units

The Finance (No. 2) Act 2004 has inserted Section 111A, whereby short-term capital gains arising on sale of units of Equity Oriented Funds after introduction of STT would be chargeable to income tax at a concessional rate of 10% plus applicable surcharge and cess provided such transactions are entered into on a recognized stock exchange or such units are sold to the Mutual Funds.

Further, Section 48 has been amended to provide that no deduction shall be allowed in respect of STT paid for the purpose of computing Capital Gains.

In view of the aforesaid amendment, short-term capital gains in respect of units held for a period of not more than 12 months is added to the total income, which would be taxable at the rate of 10% plus applicable surcharge and cess. A surcharge of 2.5% on the income tax would be levied on all categories of assesses except in the case of individuals and HUF. With regards to individuals and HUF having a total income exceeding Rs. 850,000, a surcharge of 10% would be applicable. Further, education cess at the rate of 2% on the income tax (including applicable surcharge) would be applicable for all categories of assesses.

Capital losses

Losses under the head "Capital Gains" cannot be setoff against income under any other head. Further within the head "Capital Gains", losses arising from the transfer of long-term capital assets cannot be adjusted against gains arising from the transfer of a short-term capital asset. However, losses arising from the transfer of short-term capital assets can be adjusted against gains arising from the transfer of either a long-term or a short-term capital asset.

Finance Act, 2004 has inserted Section 10(38), whereby Long term Capital gain on sale of units of Equity Oriented Fund will be exempt from Income Tax provided certain conditions are fulfilled. Hence, long term capital losses arising from such type of transaction of sale of units of Equity Oriented Fund would not be eligible for set-off against taxable capital gains. Unabsorbed short-term capital loss can be carried forward and set off against the income under the head Capital Gains in subsequent eight assessment years. According to section 94(7) of the Act as amended by the Finance (No. 2) Act, 2004, if any person buys or acquires units within a period of three months prior to the record date fixed for declaration of dividend or distribution of income and sells or transfers the same within a period of nine months from such record date, then losses arising from such sale to the extent of income received or receivable on such units, which are exempt under the Act, will be ignored for the purpose of computing his income chargeable to tax.

Further, Finance (No. 2) Act, 2004 has inserted sub-section (8) in Section 94, which provides that, where additional units have been issued to any person without any payment, on the basis of existing units held by such person then the loss on sale of original units shall be ignored for the purpose of computing income chargeable to tax, if the original units were acquired within 3 months prior to the record date fixed for receipt of additional units and sold within 9 months from such record date. However, the loss so ignored shall be considered as cost of acquisition of such additional units held on the date of sale by such person.

TAX DEDUCTION AT SOURCE

A. For Income in respect of units:

No tax shall be deducted at source in respect of any income credited or paid in respect of units of the Fund as per the provisions of section 10(35), section 194K and section 196A.

B. For Capital Gains:

(i) In respect of Resident Unit holders:

No tax is required to be deducted at source on capital gains arising to any resident unit holder (under section 194K) vide circular no. 715 dated August 8, 1995 issued by the Central Board for Direct Taxes (CBDT).

(ii) In respect of Non- Resident Unit holders:

Under section 195 the Act, tax shall be deducted at source in respect of capital gains as under:

- a. In case of non-resident other than a company -

INSTRUCTIONS & INFORMATIONSystematic Investment Plan (SIP) Enrolment Form

- This form needs to be filled in addition to the Common Application Form if you are a new Investor in the Schemes of Sundaram Mutual Fund.
- You can invest a minimum of Rs.250/- or greater on a WEEKLY, FORTNIGHTLY, MONTHLY or a QUARTERLY basis by providing the Registrar and Share Transfer Agent post-dated cheques for at least one year, i.e., 12 cheques for monthly or 4 cheques for quarterly SIP. All cheques must be for a fixed amount.
However under AIM plan investors can issue cheques of Rs.500/- and above in all the equities schemes except Sundaram Select Focus, along with the undertaking that the minimum investment will be completed within 12 months from the date of initial investment.
- The cheques should be drawn in favour of the scheme name and crossed "a/c payee only" and made payable at any of the Investor Service Centres. On receipt of the post-dated cheques the Registrar and Share Transfer Agent will send a letter to the unit holder confirming that his or her name has been included in the SIP.
- All cheques must be dated the same day of each month. The cheques will be presented on the same or the next Working Day and units will be allotted at the applicable NAV.
- Investors with e-mail will receive statements only by e-mail.
- An updated Account Statement will subsequently be sent to the unit holder indicating the new balance to his or her credit in the account. For investors without e-mail ids, a consolidated statement will be sent every quarter.
- If two consecutive post-dated cheques are returned unpaid by the bank, the SIP will be terminated and the balance cheque(s) if any, will be returned to the investor.
- The investor will have the right to discontinue SIP at any time he or she so desires by providing a written request at the office of the Registrar and Share Transfer Agent in Chennai. Notice of discontinuance should be received 7 days prior to the month that it is required to be effected in. The investor will cease to be a part of the SIP on receipt of the written request and any post-dated cheque(s) remaining with the Registrar and Share Transfer Agent or the Mutual Fund will be returned to the investor.
- Load: For investments made under Systematic Investment Plan, no entry load will be charged but there is an exit load 2.25% if redeemed within 24 months from the date of investment. For Tax Saver Entry Load: 2.25% and Exit Load: Nil.
